ADMISSIONS POLICY

Admission Requirements

Education. The minimum education requirement for the massage therapy program at Georgia Massage School is a high school diploma or equivalent (GED certificate).

Age. All applicants must be at least 18 years of age.

Admission Procedures

All applicants must complete the following process to be accepted to Georgia Massage School as a student:

1. All applicants must schedule and attend an interview and tour of the facility on the specified date and time.
2. Submit a completed, signed application for admission with a non-refundable application fee of $75.
3. Submit an official high school and/or college transcript(s), an official GED transcript, or a copy of your high school and/or college diploma(s).
4. Submit a completed Georgia Massage School medical release form indicating that the applicant is free of disease communicable through ethical touch and is physically capable of giving and receiving massage therapy.
5. ESL students are subject to an English proficiency test.

Once admission files are complete, applicants will be considered for acceptance and notified in writing of an admissions decision. Completion of the file does not automatically guarantee acceptance. Applications remain active for 1 year after submission.

Home schooled Applicants. Georgia Massage School requires that an awarding home school/high school be endorsed by a recognized accrediting agency. GMS recognizes the following home school accreditation agencies:

1. Regional Accreditation Agencies such as SACS (Southern Association of Colleges and Schools)
2. Georgia Accreditation Commission, Inc.
3. Accrediting Commission of Independent Study (ACIS)
4. Georgia Private School Accreditation (GAPSAC)

Students who graduated from a program that was not accredited by one of these agencies must pass the GED exam in order to be eligible for admission.
